Brandon Bowmen a college graduate who has a video production company, showed great interest and a real passion for the radio business and wanted to learn the business, especially the on-air side of the business.

Brandon's internship was spent learning the day-to-day operations of WAIL 99.5 and working as an associate producer of the Bill Hoebee Show. Learning how to work the board, scheduling the guest on the show, editing news stories and the shows runner. He also learned how to board-op live remotes and set up on-location live remotes.

Brandon also produced several social media videos for our stations.

Brandon has been a terrific asset for us during his internship time, proving to be extremely reliable. It was a pleasure to have Brandon with our team as our intern.
